

Thank you for your interest in requesting a script review.
Please note that reviews are not remarking exercises and scripts will not be returned.

The script review is a detailed report providing feedback on your exam answers. It is available to strategic level candidates with marks between 40 and 49, and T4 candidates with credits between 20 and 24 only.

You should email your request to our Examination and Assessment Department before Friday 10 February 2012 at exam.review@cimaglobal.com. Please read the information below before sending your email.

Please help us to deal with your request effectively by providing the following information:

- full name;
- your CIMA contact ID;
- the paper(s) you sat;
- your candidate number (this is on your admission advice);
- the mark you received; and
- your payment method.

Payment You should pay online by credit/debit card. We advise against including your card details in any e-mail correspondence as we cannot guarantee security.

Pay online: By crediting your CIMA account with the following fee:

£147 per script review – all strategic papers

£147 per script review – T4 part B (May and November diets)

£100 per script review – T4 part B (March and September diets)

Your review will be sent to you via email within 5 weeks of payment being made.

Because of the time involved in conducting each review, we are unable to accept requests received after the deadline.
